Who we are

Who is providing this notice? SVB Securities LLC

What we do

How does SVB Securities protect my personal information? To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does SVB Securities collect my personal information? We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or update your financial information
- Place an order or change your investment objective
- Whenever required by regulation

Why can't I limit all sharing? Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else? If you are a joint account holder, we will accept instructions from either of you and apply them to the entire account.
